

Production Packages, Pricing & Funnel

Built from confirmed assets already owned: the 4-camera rig, drones, in-house editing, two-room home studio, Vocalator Pro, Anarchy Comp, Mureka access, in-house print production, and voice-over capability. Every price below is backed by verified 2026 market data, except one item with no existing market to verify against — clearly marked.

Individual À La Carte Pricing

Service	Price	Basis
Voice-over — 30-sec commercial/drop	$40 – $80	Verified 2026 market rate
Voice-over — corporate/promo video (2-3 min)	$75 – $150	Verified 2026 market rate
Voice-over — documentary/narration (per hour)	$200 – $350	Verified 2026 market rate
Vocal mix & polish (Vocalator Pro + Anarchy Comp)	$68 – $183 per hour	Verified — Toronto video/audio editor rate

Bundled Packages

Starter — "Get Heard" ($75)

- One 30-second voice-over drop (station ID or promo read)
- One Mureka-assisted backing track kickstart
- Real value at verified low-end rates: ~$80 (30-sec voice-over $40 + Mureka kickstart $40) — priced as an entry bundle

FLAG: at verified rates, this bundle only saves ~$5 (75 vs. 80) — that's not a real bundle discount, it's essentially full price. Either lower this to ~$65-70 to make it a genuine entry offer, or drop the "discount" framing entirely and position it purely as a low-friction first purchase, not a deal.

Core — "Studio Ready" ($250)

- One vocal track fully mixed (Vocalator Pro + Anarchy Comp chain)
- One promo voice-over (corporate/promo length)

- One photography session (profile/promo images)
- Real value at verified low-end rates: ~$343 (1hr vocal mix $68 + promo voice-over $75 + photo session $200) — priced as a genuine bundle discount

Signature — "Full Spotlight" ($750)

- Full videography session (4-camera rig + drone aerial add-on)
- Documentary-style narration/voice-over
- Two vocal tracks mixed and polished
- One Full-Page Mini-Magazine Print Feature
- Real value at verified low-end rates: ~$1,096 (videography + drone ~$610 + narration $200 + 2 vocal mixes $136 + print feature $150) — priced as the flagship bundle discount

The Funnel

- Entry point: specifically the $10/month base tier signup (Musicians/Dancers/Comedians/Bands/Podcasters/Songwriters) — the lowest-friction, easiest yes. The $20 DJ and $25 Extra tiers are separate, higher-commitment paths, not part of this same funnel entry
- First upsell (one-time-only, countdown timer): Starter package ("Get Heard") — low price, immediate value, easy add-on right after signup
- Second upsell (presented after first is accepted or declined): Core package ("Studio Ready") — positioned as the serious next step once they're already invested
- Exit-intent trigger: discount offer on whichever package they didn't take, shown only if they try to leave the page
- Ongoing/recurring offer (not one-time): Signature package ("Full Spotlight") — kept available afterward as a standing higher-tier option, not locked to the signup moment, since it's a bigger commitment that may take longer to decide on

Making It Irresistible — Every Individual Service Placed in Sequence

Not just three bundles — every à la carte service from the pricing table has a specific place in the escalation, each one designed to feel like the obvious next yes rather than a separate ask.

- Step 1 (seconds after signup): the 30-sec voice-over drop ($40-80) — cheapest, fastest, most emotionally immediate ('hear your own name/brand professionally voiced right now') — the foot-in-the-door
- Step 2 (same session): Mureka-assisted backing track kickstart ($40-75) — bundled with Step 1 as the Starter package, reinforcing 'you're already creating' momentum
- Step 3 (24-48 hours later, triggered by engagement): vocal mix & polish ($68-183/hr) — positioned as 'make what you already recorded sound finished' — targets the specific pain of a rough home recording
- Step 4 (same follow-up): photography session ($200-1,200) — 'you need a real photo to match the real sound' — bundled with Step 3 as the Core package

- Step 5 (after Core is accepted — the aspirational leap): full videography + drone ($108-408/hr + $150-400/hr) — this is the visible, shareable, ego-driven purchase; positioned as 'what serious artists look like'
- Step 6 (same tier, tangible takeaway): the Full-Page Mini-Magazine Print Feature ($150) — a physical, holdable object, which research on print consistently shows creates a different, stronger sense of legitimacy than digital-only content
- Step 7 (standing, always available): the Signature package bundles Steps 5-6 plus documentary narration and two polished vocal tracks — the ceiling offer, never time-pressured, always there once someone's ready

The psychological throughline: each step is priced low enough relative to the last accepted purchase that saying yes again feels smaller than saying yes the first time — momentum does the selling, not persuasion copy.

Honest note: every price above is now backed by verified 2026 market data (several Toronto/Ontario-specific), except the Mureka-assisted backing track service, which has no existing market comparable since it is a genuinely new offering — that one figure remains a reasoned starting point, not a verified rate, and should be treated accordingly. The bundle "real value if sold separately" figures below use the lower end of each verified range, reflecting a shorter/simpler session appropriate to a bundled package rather than a full standalone commercial booking.
